Hi Russ. Pertaining to your last paragraph. I incorporated a non-profit with boiler plate articles of incorporation with an office in Ontario. Upon corporation you have to fill in something to the blanks. At least one director is required so I filled in my name, and I also made Chris Garrah a director in order to use his address for the Ontario office.

Your lawyers can change everything about this corporation, and new directors can be installed ASAP. The important thing is that it exists, and is a person that can do business effective immediately.

There are two other entities that want a non profit incorporated due to this movement so if there's no interest in this I'll offer it to one of them. It cost me $313.80 to incorporate tonight and I named it Freedom 2022 Human Rights and Freedoms. As you know you need a distinctive and descriptive element to a name. Freedom 2022 was the distinctive element and Human Rights and Freedoms is the descriptive element. I highly advise using this as per your email below. If I don't hear from anyone on this by 10:00 a.m. tomorrow I'll offer it to them.

Sincerely,

Chad

We have concerns about substantial potential liability simply due to the amount of money involved and the likelihood that political adversaries will almost certainly attack using whatever means they can (e.g. a $100 donor could sue for improper use of funds). Members of an association would be face personally liability if this were to happen.

If the Convoy is able to operate for the coming week, it is possible that an expedited application could be made in Alberta to create a not-for-profit that would protect all involved from personal liability.

If the Convoy can not operate for that length of time, a temporary Association could be created until a not-for-profit was put in place. This would, however, expose any members of the Association to potential liability for all decisions made during that period.

An alternative to creating a new not-for-profit (NFP) would be to take over the board and membership of an existing shell NFP if anyone knows of one with sufficiently broad scope that is available.

I'm available whenever you want. In our last Zoom meeting Russ indicated that Tamara should indicate who else should be a director of the association. Russ and I both indicated we would be willing. Here's who I have been introduced to and notes this week:

Known Chris for years:

Chris Garrah - Ottawa protest logistics team of 20 people in "The War Room" (safety, security, sanitation, housing, food, web media and stage)

Zoom meeting Jan 26, 2022 (result in use of fund plan submitted):

Helen - bookkeeper and advisor

Kristina - advisor

Jeff Rath - practicing lawyer known to either Kristina or Helen (not involved anymore?)

Chad Eros (me) - CPA, consultant, finance and business planning in collaboration with team

*Meeting result in plan submitted to release GoFundMe funds

Zoom meeting Jan 30, 2022:

Tamara Lich - GoFundMe fundraiser and face and leader of the convoy

Sandy Sable - Advisor

Chad Eros (me) - sane as above

Russ Hiebert - Retired MP and lawyer, advisor, media and political connections and advice

* meeting result in porta potties and stage paid for by Adopt a Trucker, resolution to form association, Russ recommending change from TD to Credit Union (good contact better service), contemplating about accomplishing bank transactions, a need for a comprehensive use of funds plan submitted to GoFundMe.

Also saw following in GoFundMe:

B.J. Dichter - also saw on Tucker Carlson as event spokesperson which brings me to media spokesperson:

Media

I recall a desire for a media spokesperson. I thought BJ did good with Tucker Carlson talking about the impending social credit system coming (I fully agree) but the story I fell in love with was from Helen who told me Tamara started the GoFundMe to help an out of work friend and then it exploded into this. I think people should hear this story. Therefore I recommend Tamara and BJ appear together and Tamara simply explains how this all evolved and BJ talks about the activist aspect and what the truckers and Canadians want immediately ended. Be really picky which media you talk to. JT owns CBC. CTV I'm not sure. Rebel is independent from the Canadian government. Careful talking to politically aligned media and government owned media.

Those are my observations and comments from our past meetings.

Hope that helps.

Good morning everyone. I haven't had a chance to sit down and go through these emails yet but I will make time today. I am including Chris Barber in our thread as he should have a say in this also. Perhaps we can set to another call and include him in it also.

Have a great day.

Sincerely,

Tamara
